

Hello, Mark here from PTB.

I just wanted to reach out quickly and thank you personally for trusting me. I'm by no means shocked, but still I'm flattered that you believe in me and my expertise enough to invest in me and my over 20 years of knowledge and experiences in the business of personal training. I very much appreciate your support and look forward to a continued partnership with you during your journey.

If you scheduled a phone consultation with me, I anticipate a very honest and passionate discussion with you on how wonderful your future will be as a personal trainer and a business person. We will fix the problems you are facing together. After our talk is over, you will feel very motivated and very excited. I can't wait.

If you didn't schedule a time to talk on the phone with me, I hope to hear from you soon.

I want nothing more than for you to use my time tested information to create stability in your life and your personal training business. Put this information to work, and it will allow you to attain perfect clients, make more money, and become a happier personal trainer. Guaranteed!

Along with my newest eBook Successful Marketing Strategies Used By Six-Figure Earning Personal Trainers, you received six different templates/blueprints.

If you're curious to what those are I guess you can take a peek, but I'd wait if I were you. I recommend reading the eBook a couple times before you check out the templates. That way you'll totally understand what they're for and how they work. Your best bet is to let all of my information sink in before you rush into devising a plan to become the "go to" trainer in your market. Although, I totally understand you wanting to get after it and start your new plan right away.

These templates/blueprints are exact copies of bio/ads that I used to get known in my market. They work. You can copy them almost word for word to use as your own. All you have to do is try. Fight your fears and use them. Send them out to the masses.

This isn't goodbye, but I wish you the very best in your personal training future. I'm rooting for you!

Again thank you, talk soon.

Mark
